

Fauquier Lions Club 2005 Award Program

The Fauquier Lions Club has implemented an award program for local law enforcement officers which started in 1998. The Club presents awards to members of the Fauquier Sheriff's Office and to Virginia State Troopers based in Fauquier County. The award recipients are selected by their respective office and are based on Exceptional Performance of Duty and Devotion to Service.

The Fauquier Sheriff's Office recipient for the year 2005 is Corporal Andrew Marshall. The son of Danny & Ce-Ce Marshall of Catlett, Andy has resided in Fauquier County his entire life.

Corporal Marshall began his career with the Fauquier County Sheriff's Office in 1992 as a member of the Explorers Program, while attending Fauquier High School. He later graduated from Liberty High School in 1996. Corporal Marshall went on to George Mason University earning a bachelors degree in Criminal Justice. Andy graduated second in his class from the Northern Virginia Criminal Justice Academy and was sworn in as a Fauquier County Deputy Sheriff in December of 2000 assigned to the Detention Center. In 2002 Corporal Marshall transferred to the Patrol Division where his outstanding performance was recognized, which earned him a promotion to Corporal in 2003.

Cpl. Andy Marshall
receiving the 2005 Law
Enforcement Award

Lion Pass-District
Governor Bill Jones

Major Paul Mercer

Leading by example, Andy is always ready, willing and able to serve the residents of Fauquier County. Sheriff Fox states, "Corporal Marshall is competent, courteous, professional, and demonstrates the ability to make high-quality decisions. His excellent supervisory skills serve the citizens of Fauquier County with a sincere and positive manner".

"Corporal Marshall's law enforcement career has bright future, says Sheriff Fox". The Sheriff recognizes outstanding performance, by all his Deputies, as an asset to the community.

Sheriff Charlie Ray Fox, Jr. and the entire Fauquier County Sheriff's Office would like to congratulate Corporal Marshall, as he is well deserving of this prestigious award.